

CADME PRESENTS A DAY WITH DR. DALE LONIS

CADME is pleased to present “Building a Culture of Success” with Dr. Dale Lonis - a day of professional development for music teachers on Friday, October 7. There is no cost to teachers who attend

The event is being hosted and facilitated by Harriet Siemens at Dr. Gordon Higgins Junior High School located at 155 Rundlehill Dr NE, Calgary, AB

Sessions will run from 9:00 – 12:00 and 1:00 – 3:00

Topics may include, but are not limited to:

- Building an environment of trust in your music program
- Engaging in social justice through music
- A philosophy and practice of music education grounded in powerful pedagogical and psychological tenets as well as the latest brain research
- Effective rehearsal concepts and practices designed to help you efficiently and effectively unify the sound of your ensemble, bring them to a greater level of expression and save valuable rehearsal time as you do it.
- No time for score study? Maybe there is another way – a new approach to score study intended to inform your rehearsals with and use your own time more effectively.

We ask that you register for this event by emailing Harriet Siemens directly so that she can plan for space and materials. hlsiemens@cbe.ab.ca

We also invite you to ask questions or make suggestions about what you would like to know so that Dr. Lonis can better address your professional development.

Dr. Lonis is the founder of Music Mentors International and is visiting Canada as a guest of CADME. We invite you to visit <http://www.mmiachieve.com/> to view his full and to learn more about his activities. We look forward to seeing you on October 7!
